FROM US

to you

To the WIVH family,

The Bible speaks a lot about rain—sometimes as a sign of blessing, and others times as a sign of judgement. How can the same thing be seen in two different ways? A few years back, Laura Story penned these words:

*Cause what if Your blessings come through raindrops
What if Your healing comes through tears
What if a thousand sleepless nights
Are what it takes to know You're near
What if trials of this life are Your mercies in disguise*

That now familiar song reminds us that while we may not always see things as God sees them, He will ALWAYS accomplish His purpose.

“For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it.”
Isaiah 55:10-11

As we daily broadcast the word of the Lord, we can be confident that there will be a harvest. We often hear from listeners who write to tell us how blessed they are by the ministry of WIVH! We are grateful for your encouragement of this listener supported station; we could not get The Word out without you!

Counting our blessings,

Tim + Heather

Connect Live Giveaway

Connect Live co-host Tim Madeira recently interviewed Christian recording artist and author Plumb. She has a new book set to be released on August 24 titled Fight for Her and we received an advance copy as well as several copies of her latest CD release, Beautifully Broken. You hear her music often on WIVH, including songs like “Need You Now,” “Smoke,” and “Exhale.” You can listen to Tim’s interview with Plumb at facebook.com/wivhfm.

Describing the album’s message, Plumb says, “It’s important to accept that yes, we are broken and flawed, but at the end of day our identity is not found in our mistakes—those aren’t who we are. Who we are is God’s children; that alone makes us beautiful. We need to hear human stories and songs about people going through these battles with brokenness so we can say ‘I’ve been through the same,’ and feel the hope of not being alone.” Listen during Connect Live at 10 am August 20-24 for your chance to win this great new album from Plumb!
